Mann Vergan, London-based Partner working with LLB since 2018, specializes in cross-border structuring and contracts, private equity advisory and recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards and assists clients globally on such matters. Mann is admitted in the England & Wales, the British Virgin Islands, New York and Massachusetts.

Mann has over 20-yearsexperience advising clients in complex cross-border structuring and investments. His extensive experience in Cayman Islands, British Virgin Islands and other common law jurisdictions, including Cyprus, Malta, Isle of Man and Jersey, complements the arbitration and litigation analysis required for complex dispute resolution. Mann acts as lead partner for all parallel proceedings in English courts, including Mareva Injunction and other work. Mann is instrumental in our activity in transaction advisory in our British Islands office and other common law jurisdictions. His expensive experience with private equity firms and corporate service providers in various jurisdictions allows strong transactional support and advisory.
